

Ferham Primary School

17th September 2021

Thank you

Yesterday was National Teaching Assistants' Day. At Ferham we have a devoted, passionate and hard working team of Teaching Assistants. Without this fabulous team, Ferham would not function effectively and efficiently – Thank You for being awesome!

Mrs Fenton's Book Nook

Recommendation of the week!

This week Mrs Fenton is recommending 'The Nothing to see Here Hotel', by Steven Butler and Steven Lenton.

Imagine a hotel, by the sea, full of unusual guests such as tooth fairies and goblins. Now imagine being Frankie Bannister, the little boy who lives there.

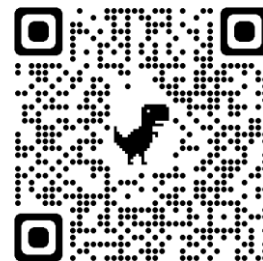

This will be great to share with Y2 upwards and read alone from Y4.

Mrs Fenton will share if copy if you would like to read this.

Kindness

In school this week we have focused on kindness. As a school we always promote and champion kindness. Together, as a school, we have spoken and worked on how we can grow kindness. Pupils have supported and encouraged each other using kindness. By performing one act of kindness a day we improve our own mental health and that of those who reciprocate our kindness. It makes everyone feel amazing when we are all kind.

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the power to turn a life around." - Leo Buscaglia
